

PHOTO:UN Photo/Marco Dormino, <https://www.un.org/en/observances/international-day-peace>

Invitation to SHAPING PEACE TOGETHER:
THE ROLE OF DIASPORA COMMUNITIES IN PEACEBUILDING

A free online event to celebrate and further the aims of UN International Peace Day, 21 September 2020

Date: Monday 21 September 2020

Time: 6.00pm – 8.00pm AEST (via Zoom)

Diaspora Action Australia and the Department of Peace and Conflict Studies, University of Sydney in collaboration with Music For Refugees, Burundian and Rwandan Diasporas in Australia are delighted to invite you and your communities and colleagues for a webinar discussion to celebrate and further the aims of International Peace Day and the 75th anniversary of the United Nations.

This event is for activists, academics, students, diaspora community members and anyone interested in creating hope and learning about the possibilities and challenges for diaspora-led community initiatives to support peacebuilding and development and how these efforts could be enhanced through networking and sharing ideas and experiences: shaping peace together!

Speakers and panellists include:

- Dr Wendy Lambourne, Chair, Department of Peace and Conflict Studies, University of Sydney
- Denise Goldfinch, Chief Executive Officer, Diaspora Action Australia
- Evariste Ngenzi, Chairman, Rwandan Diaspora in New South Wales
- Pacifique Ndayisaba, Burundi Diaspora in Australia

Moderators: Raphael Manirakiza, Burundi Diaspora in Australia
Dr Louise Olliff, School of Social and Political Sciences, University of Melbourne

RSVP: email philip@musicforrefugees.org and raphael.manirakiza@gmail.com by Friday 18 September 2020 and you will receive a Zoom link with more details.